

One Month in the Life of Jenell Mahoney

Best you think the clergy life —
is mainly milk and honey,

A way of living far from strife —
while wallowing in money.

Just take a look at some of the ways your minister was called

In thirty merely mortal days — you're bound to be enthralled!

■ Plan the music and the arts,
organize the sermon,

■ Counsel all the broken hearts
that time and chance determine,

■ Visit with the sick and weary,
change the sign outside,

■ Make the wedding bright and cheery
for the groom and bride,

■ Meet the clergymen at lunch,
write an invocation,

■ Act upon a godly hunch
to help a grieving nation:

■ Call together many a mind
from many a faith and creed

In new-found fellowship to bind our hearts in mutual need!

Now some there are who say a flock
can follow just a ram.

But we are following a frock,
and proud it's on a ma'am!!!

We love you, Jenell!
